

Elephant Talk Announces MVNO Contract with United Telecommunication Services

SCHIPHOL, THE NETHERLANDS--(03/11/10) - Elephant Talk Communications, Inc. (OTC.BB:ETAK - News), a leader in telecommunications business software innovation and services, today announced it has signed a Heads of Terms Agreement with United Telecommunication Services (UTS) for its subsidiary Dutch United Telecommunication Services BV(dUTS) in the Netherlands. UTS purchased the rights to approach former Mobile Virtual Network Operators (MVNOs) customers who reached the end of their contractual periods. Also, UTS plans to offer existing customers new service offerings in the near future.

UTS will use Elephant Talks carrier grade Mobile Virtual Network Enabler (MVNE) platform to offer these new services to existing customers and expand geographically through dUTS in The Netherlands. This will enable dUTS to offer attractive pricing plans, including those former MVNO customers who want to continue their MVNO service.

"This is only the operational beginning of our dynamic and unique product offerings to this target group," stated, Paul de Geus, CEO of UTS. "Elephant Talk's fully integrated platform will be used to host the mobile services and to support the various communication needs in The Netherlands. The platform will also support our future roadmap to maintain our presence within the Dutch market. We will be joining our efforts together with Elephant Talk to let our Antillean and Surinam customers gain profit from the global presence of Elephant Talk's network and termination possibilities, as well as connect the home markets of UTS. This is an excellent agreement for us, Elephant Talk and the customers we will serve."

"Our working relationship with UTS goes back a long time and we have completed various projects together in the past," said, Mr. Martin Zuurbier, CTO of Elephant Talk. "We believe that our new agreement with UTS will make dUTS successful in the Dutch marketplace. UTS took the initiative to acquire this substantial customer base to continue to develop their strategy throughout The Netherlands. Elephant Talk can integrate the latest technologies demanded by the market and dUTS customers will have more convenience and simplified communications by using our platform that contains cell-id features and multiple destinations for termination."
